

THE ARMY AND NAVY.

MOVEMENTS OF THE OFFICERS.

Latest from the Camp, Garrison, and Field--News from the Navy-Yards and Quarter-Deck--Gossip Among the Men who Wear Epaulettes.

Acting Sailmaker Thomas Ward, U. S. N., has resigned his commission.

Captain John A. D. Nickels, U. S. N., reported at the Norfolk Navy-Yard last Friday for duty.

The training-ship Potomac, now stationed here, is daily enlisting quite a number of boys of the country.

Lieutenant Henry H. Benham, Second Infantry, who graduated in 1879, arrived at the Elliott House Sunday morning.

Paymaster Leander A. Frailey, U. S. N., reported at the Norfolk Navy-Yard last Friday, relieving Paymaster Charles W. Shamm.

Major James M. Ropes, Lieutenant Eighth Cavalry, who recently was in Washington, arrived at the Elliott House Saturday morning.

John Smith, the clarion player of the band on the training-ship New Hampshire, at Newport, completed another cast Friday by drowning.

Colonel Charles J. Bracken, Captain of the marines, for repairs, for duty at the navy-yard Pensacola, Fla., has been extended until the 25th.

Lieutenant Frederick Von Schneidner, Twelfth Infantry, and Lieutenant William H. Abercrombie, Second Infantry, have been granted six months' leave each.

Wynona reports to the Navy Department that the Alliance, now undergoing repairs at the Boston Navy-Yard, will not be ready for service for a month yet.

B. Peake, of Baltimore, with his wife, arrived in town Sunday on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Meyers, wife of Pay-Clerk Meyers, of the torpedo station.

The Assistant Surgeon James Marshall Montgomery is the full rank and name of the gallant medical officer of the navy who is part of the John Bull.

Brigadier-Admiral Charles S. Boys and Mrs. Boys arrived at the Elliott House Saturday afternoon to remain during the winter, as has been their custom for several years past.

Lieutenant Andrew Crawford, Jr., Second Artillery, is relieved from duty at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., and ordered to join his battery, which is serving at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.

Lieutenant Hiriam H. Ketchum, adjutant Twenty-second Infantry, was married last month at New Haven.

All the steam-engineering employees at the Boston Navy-Yard have been furloughed for January.

Brigadier-Admiral Charles W. Snyder, U. S. N., reported at the Norfolk Navy-Yard last Monday for a month's leave.

The Pinta (fourth rate) will be brought to the navy-yard to be repaired.

Lieutenant Henry T. Monahan, U. S. N., arrived at the Jamestown February 1; Ensign F. B. Vinton, from the Hydrographic Office and ordered to the Jamestown; Major G. C. Hart, commanding training-ship Saratoga and Corinthia, to the Jamestown.

Captain Lemuel A. Abbott, Sixth Cavalry, was Boston last Wednesday.

Sixteen recruits are ordered to Santa Fe, N. Mex., for the Twenty-third Infantry.

Forty recruits are ordered to be sent to Santa Fe for the Twenty-third Infantry.

Lieutenant Henry T. Monahan, U. S. N., arrived at the Elliott House Tuesday evening.

The Pinta (fourth rate) will be brought to the navy-yard to be repaired.

Lieutenant Thomas M. Mc Dougall, seventh Cavalry, and Mrs. McDougall are living No. 125 Franklin Street, New York, where he has his home.

The Assistant Surgeon James Marshall Montgomery is the full rank and name of the gallant medical officer of the navy who is part of the John Bull.

Brigadier-Admiral Charles S. Boys and Mrs. Boys arrived at the Elliott House Saturday afternoon to remain during the winter, as has been their custom for several years past.

Lieutenant Andrew Crawford, Jr., Second Artillery, is relieved from duty at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., and ordered to join his battery, which is serving at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt.

Lieutenant Hiriam H. Ketchum, adjutant Twenty-second Infantry, was married last month at New Haven.

All the steam-engineering employees at the Boston Navy-Yard have been furloughed for January.

Brigadier-Admiral Charles W. Snyder, U. S. N., reported at the Norfolk Navy-Yard last Monday for a month's leave.

The Pinta (fourth rate) will be brought to the navy-yard to be repaired.

Lieutenant Francis B. Ellison, rear admiral, has returned to Boston from his visit to his son in Kansas City, Mo.

Captain Theodore A. Baldwin, Tenth Cavalry, has received six months' leave February 15, with permission to go to Mexico.

Lieutenant Henry T. Monahan, adjutant Twenty-third Infantry, a recent graduate of West Point, arrived at the Elliott House Tuesday evening.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

Acting Assistant Surgeon G. A. Thompson, U. S. A., has been ordered to report to the Elliott House from Washington to his station at Fort Verde, in Indian Territory. He is a brother of Captain William A. Thompson, First Cavalry, and Captain W. H. Thompson, Third Cavalry.

The Army and Navy Register, which was established here first in the Gazette in 1878, and afterwards under the present name, on the 1st of December, 1879, has provided for the sale of the same on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

Acting Assistant Surgeon G. A. Thompson, U. S. A., has been ordered to report to the Elliott House from Washington to his station at Fort Verde, in Indian Territory. He is a brother of Captain William A. Thompson, First Cavalry, and Captain W. H. Thompson, Third Cavalry.

The Army and Navy Register, which was established here first in the Gazette in 1878, and afterwards under the present name, on the 1st of December, 1879, has provided for the sale of the same on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.

Lieutenant William A. Glassford, signal corps, instead of reporting here for duty, is ordered, on completion of his present duties, to report to General-in-Chief, to receive instructions, to take charge of all Government lines of other signal duty in the Department of the Missouri.

The engagement of Lieutenant Frederick G. Knobell, Second Lieutenant-captain of Engineers, Miles to Miss Ada J. Bracken, of Rock Island, Ill., the niece of daughter of Colonel Albert G. Knobell, is announced.

The Pinta (fourth rate) may be the last thing to go West, as it is the only vessel which has not yet been repaired.

The letter of Rear Admiral Rodgers, of the Naval Observatory, to Secretary Hunt, protesting against the proposed reduction of the pay of the time on the part of general Hagen, Chief Signal Officer of the Army, has been referred to the Secretary of War.